The Linda Ray Intervention Center (LRIC) is a University-based Multidisciplinary Educational Service Center within the Department of Education's Florida Diagnostic and Learning Resources System. Additionally, the LRIC is one of the five Early Intervention Birth-Two Programs in Miami within the state's Early Steps program for young children with disabilities. The LRIC is part of the Department of Psychology within the College of Arts and Sciences. Our mission is to support and facilitate positive developmental outcomes with high quality services, thereby improving young children's school readiness, and future student achievement.

FDLRS-UM Parent Survey June 2016

On the FDLRS-UM Parent Survey ending June 2016, parents indicated overall satisfaction in all areas of the IEP/IFSP process. Parents strongly agreed or agreed that they were part of the decision making process and that the Linda Ray staff provided them with information on other services (90%). Parents also strongly agreed or agreed that the child's evaluation was written in words they understood; that the staff was readily available to the parent; that the staff treated the parent as an equal; and that the teacher gave good progress information (93%). One area recommended for improvement is for the FDLRS-UM MDC to offer different ways of communicating with parents and MDC staff, and giving parents help to play an even more active role in their child's learning and development.
