The Linda Ray Intervention Center (LRIC) is a University-based Multidisciplinary Educational Services Center within the Department of Education’s Florida Diagnostic and Learning Resources System. Additionally, the LRIC is one of the five Early Intervention Birth-Two Programs in Miami within the state’s Early Steps program for young children with disabilities. The LRIC is part of the Department of Psychology within the College of Arts and Sciences. Our mission is to support and facilitate positive developmental outcomes with high quality services, thereby improving young children’s school readiness, and future student achievement.

Ongoing support activities for our students:

Graduate students enrolled in the Early Childhood Special Education Program at UM are completing their practicum hours working in classrooms at our Center during summer semesters. They all expressed gratitude for the opportunity to help out and to learn more about infant/toddler development and strategies teachers use in early intervention. We appreciate their time and efforts.
